HOW TO ENTER

1. Please review Extra Virgin Olive Oil Competition Information (classes, entry fees, volume, labels etc) at <https://internationaloliveawardsaustralia.com.au/extra-virgin-olive-oil-competition-information/>
2. Download and complete this form including the declaration on this page. Include form with your oil entries or scan and email to aioa@australianolives.com.au. A $20 handling fee will be incurred for all paper entries (not online). The AOA will email you a receipt for your payment.
3. Alternatively go to <https://internationaloliveawardsaustralia.com.au> and complete your online entry.
4. Clearly mark each container (bottle/tin/cask) with the 4-digit Exhibit ID Code used on this entry form. Use a separate code for each different type of oil entered. The front label will be photographed so place code sticker at the back of packaging. Required samples volume – minimum 2 litres per entry (4 samples of 500ml /750ml or 8 x 250ml samples).
5. Send adequately packed, commercially labelled entry/s with a copy of your entry details (online entry receipt or hard copy entry form), oil analysis (for classes 1-5) and payment receipt to: AIOA Head Steward, Trudie Michels, C/o 8 Alexander Avenue, Cumberland Park SA 5041 Australia. Entries must arrive by Friday 1st September 2023.
6. Once your entry(s) and payments have been received they are officially part of the competition. If your entry samples are not received prior to the 1st September 2023, then your entry will not be including in the judging process.
