HOW TO ENTER

1. Please review Table Olive Competition Information (classes, entry fees, volume, labels etc) at <https://internationaloliveawardsaustralia.com.au/table-olive-competition-information/>
2. Go to <https://internationaloliveawardsaustralia.com.au> and complete your online entry or alternatively download and complete this form including the declaration on this page. Include form with your oil entries or scan and email to aioa@australianolives.com.au. A $20 handling fee will be incurred for all paper entries (not online). The AOA will email you a receipt for your payment.
3. Clearly mark each container (jar, tub, pack) with the 4-digit Exhibit ID Code used on this entry form. Use a separate code for each different type of olives entered. The front label will be photographed so place code sticker at the back of packaging. Required samples volume – minimum of 1.5 kg of olives per entry, packaged in a minimum of at least three separate containers
4. All entries should arrive in commercial food grade packaging including glass jars, plastic pouches or containers, and tins. Wrap each jar/tin/pack individually with bubble wrap or other suitable shock absorbent material and fasten with rubber bands. PLEASE LIMIT PACKING TAPE USE. Then pack each entry into a large plastic Ziplock bag and then into a shipping box. Should the packaging get damaged the olives and brine will be contained.
5. Send commercially labelled entry/s with a copy of your entry form to: AIOA Head Steward, Trudie Michels, C/o 8 Alexander Avenue, Cumberland Park SA 5041 Australia. Entries must arrive by Friday 21st Aug 2026. If your samples arrive after the 21st Aug 2026, your entry may not be included in the judging process.
6. Once your entry(s) and payments have been received they are officially part of the competition. For more comprehensive Australian International Olive Awards Conditions of Entry visit: <https://internationaloliveawardsaustralia.com.au/conditions-of-entry/>
